Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. Section 3 of the Act entitled the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, approved June 20, 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 208, 50 U.S.C. 403a) (hereinafter referred to as "such Act"), is amended to read as follows:

"Section 3. In the performance of its functions, the Central Intelligence Agency is authorized to exercise the authorities of the Armed Services Procurement Act of 1947, approved February 19, 1948, as amended (10 U.S.C. 2301-2314).

SECTION 2. Section 5 of such Act is amended to read as follows:

Territories and possessions: Provided further, That the provisions of Section 911(4) may be utilized regardless of the existence of emergency conditions or when it would avoid the cost of transporting effects from one location to another;

- (2) pay the costs of travel of new appointees and their dependents, and the transportation of their household goods and personal effects, from places of actual residence in foreign countries at time of appointment to places of employment and return to their actual residences at the time of appointment or a point not more distant: Provided, That such appointees agree in writing to remain with the United States Government for a period of not less than twelve months from the time of appointment. Violation of such agreement for personal convenience of an employee or because of separation for misconduct will bar such return payments and, if determined by the Director or his designee to be in the best interests of the United States, any money expended by the United States on account of such travel and transportation shall be considered as a debt due by the individual concerned to the United States;
- (3) grant leave in accordance with the provisions of Sections 203(e) and (f) of the Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951, as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended;
- (4) charge expenses in connection with travel of personnel, their dependents, and transportation of their household goods, personal effects, and automobiles to the appropriation for the fiscal year current when any part of either the travel or transportation begins pursuant to previously issued travel orders, notwithstanding the fact that such travel or transportation may not all be effected during such fiscal year, or the travel orders may have been issued during the prior fiscal year.

- 5(b) In administering the authorities provided under Section 5(a) of this Act, or similar authorities provided under other laws, the Director may designate individual employees or groups of employees who are foreign nationals and who, by reason of employment by the Agency in certain specified positions outside the continental United States, shall be granted any or all of the benefits and privileges covered under Sec. 5(a) without regard to the provisions of any other laws which restrict the payment or granting of such benefits and privileges to employees of the United States Government who are citizens of the United States."

SECTION 3. Section 6(f)(1) of such Act is amended by striking out "fifteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "thirty-five".

SECTION 4. Section 6 of such Act is amended by the insertion of a semicolon in lieu of the period at the end of subsection (f) and by the addition of a new subsection (g) which shall read as follows:
